Annie Suarez

OWNER & ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Annie is originally from New Jersey and has a Bachelor of Arts from Rutgers University. She has studied dance, piano, and theater since the age of three. She holds a diploma from the Dance Educators of America and piano degree from the National College of Musicians. She has studied with choreographers, acting and vocal instructors such as Phil Black, Frank Hatchett, Charles Kelly, Nick Leone, Martha Chapman, Don Lawrence, Annette Charles, Leslie Giamanco, Yolanda Fernandez-Quincoces, Cecilia Cardenas, Yadira Feliz, Jaime Smith, and many more.

In addition to this Annie has worked with artists like Jessica Simpson, Beyonce, Frankie J., Daisy Fuentes, La India, Celia Cruz, Tito Puente, Raul de Molina, Lily Estefan, Javier Romero, Don Francisco, and many more.

She has performed on international television shows like Sabado Gigante International, Sabado al Medio Dia, Good Day New York, New Jersey Network and numerous other shows on Univision, Telemundo and FOX. She appeared in the long running soap "As the World Turns." She has also been the lead role for productions of Sleeping Beauty Ballet, Coppelia, Swan Lake, Firebird, Gaité Parisienne and the Nutcracker.

She has performed in a number of regional musical theater productions such as Grease, Some Like It Hot, A Funny Thing Happened, Wuthering Heights, Picnic and more. She has appeared in films and television and print commercials. Annie has recently choreographed for Grammy Award-Winning musical group "Train," on their appearance on ABC's The View.

Annie's students have gone on to work on Broadway, various dance companies. In 2005, Annie and her team were nominated for a Daytime Emmy Award.

Annie has been teaching dance for over the last two decades and her choreography has placed first in regional and national competitions. She has been the recipient of several Choreography Awards and awarded the Dance Educator Excellence Award.

She is the co-creator of the Sparkle Star Dance program for Encore Dance Studio. It is specifically developed for our tiniest dancers, to learn ballet and tap technique in a fun and creative way, while focusing on terminology and technique. Since its start, Encore's preschool aged students have tripled in size making it one of our most "in demand" classes.

Most recently, Annie is excited to be a Regional & National Head Judge for Star Dance Alliance's Believe Talent Competition and travel around the country meeting America's Top Dancers!

Her passion for dance, teaching and learning are the motivating force that drive the success of the program at Encore.

It is specifically developed for our tiniest dancers, to learn ballet and tap technique in a fun and creative way. Since it's started, Encore's preschool aged students have tripled in size - making it one of our most "in demand" classes, expanding to offer it to other preschools in the Orlando area.

FACULTY

Kristen Woska

Kristen has been passionate about dance since the age of four, training at numerous studios across New Jersey. Her extensive repertoire includes ballet, pointe, tap, jazz, lyrical, modern, and hip hop. Kristen graduated in the top ten of her class from Rahway High School, where she was a member of the dance ensemble and performed in the school's spring production of Grease. She went on to earn a degree in Business Management from Kean University in Union, NJ, where she was also a member of the Kean Dance Theater.

In 2009, Kristen became a certified dance instructor through Dance Educators of America, training under the renowned Charles "Chuck" Kelley. She has since continued to fuel her passion by attending workshops and conventions and has taken classes at Broadway Dance Center in New York City and Studio K in Orlando, FL.

After moving to Florida in 2018, Kristen joined D and L Dance Center in 2019, where she taught for two years. She has been teaching dance full-time since 2010, focusing on challenging dancers of all levels with innovative choreography while fostering a supportive, family-like atmosphere in her classes.

Most recently, Kristen became an emcee for the prestigious DreamMaker Dance Competition, part of the Star Dance Alliance. She is thrilled to bring her expertise and enthusiasm to the Encore Dance Family and looks forward to inspiring the next generation of dancers.
